CROWN HILL CENTER

Featuring tours of our palatial new production facility and our 40+ member cast in a preview of songs from our forthcoming productions:

HMS PINAFORE & COX AND BOX

HMS Pinafore, a rollicking sea-going comic opera, shreds class distinctions and pompous bureaucracy in the Royal Navy. The heroes are British Tars and the laughing stock is the First Lord of the Admiralty, who wants to marry the Captain's daughter. She, in turn loves a member of the crew. Cox and Box, the 19th century version of "The Odd Couple," features two inadvertent roommates sharing a shady landlord and a fiancée that neither cares for. Of course, both shows have happy endings.
